

Ontario Federation of Teaching Parents

Diversity in Education CONFERENCE 2008

KATE TENNIER: Can the 'system' be dramatically improved in time for our grandchildren? If so, how? What is your 'Big Idea' for education reform?

OTHER SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Richard Gervais, Carol Nash BEd PhD, Michael Reist, Dr. Carlo Ricci, Sarah Rainsberger, Beach School, Judy David-Wilson

May 3, 2008, 9:00 AM - 5:30 PM

The Walmer Center, 188 Lowther Ave, Toronto, ON

Empowering Parents to Make Informed Educational Choices

The Ontario Federation of Teaching Parents (OFTP) is a non-profit, volunteer-managed group committed to providing information about and support for home-based education to our members and the public at large.

We envision universal acknowledgement and acceptance of home-based education as a viable educational model.

For more information about the OFTP and evolving details about this and other conferences and events, please visit our website at: <http://www.ontariohomeschool.org/>

CONFERENCE FEES

Adult $30 OFTP Members, $35 Non-Members

Child (5 and up): $8 OFTP Members, $11 Non-Members

Family (2 adults/ up to 4 kids): $70 Members;

$85 Non -Members

REGISTER BY EMAIL:

conference@ontariohomeschool.org

OR TELEPHONE: 416 531 7839